

Honoring HSU Alumni

Join us for the 2016 Distinguished Alumni Speaker Series

The Distinguished Alumni Awards honor alumni for achievements in their fields or for service to their community, nation, or HSU.

BURT NORDSTROM
'75, Physical Education

Vice President of Administrative Affairs
HSU (Retired)

Personal Values,
Integrity, and Personal Ethics

Thursday, April 21, 11 am Siemens Hall, Room 109

Speaking to Prof James Biteman's BA 494 Class. Personal Values, Integrity, and Personal Ethics—the work of Mary Gentile (Giving Voice to Values) and Joseph Badaracco (The Discipline of Building Character). Burt Nordstrom will share some of his personal experiences in this area.

HEATHER HOSTLER
'12, Native American Studies

Chief Deputy, California
Office of Tribal Advisor

Two Worlds, One Goal: Success Through a Native Lens

Thursday, April 21, 3 pm
Goudi'ni Gallery

Heather Hostler, Chief Deputy, Office of Tribal Advisor, returns to Humboldt to accept the Distinguished Alumni Award, and deliver a talk about her experiences as a Humboldt student from the perspective as a tribal member and what it takes to accomplish your goals in the non-native world.

GREG BECK (left)

'94, Environmental Engineering
Director, Integrated Development, FHI360

PIET DEVRIES (right)

'93, Environmental Systems
Senior Technical Advisor, Global Communities

An Inside Perspective on International Relief and Development

Thursday, April 21, 5 pm, Science B, Room 133

Greg Beck and Piet Devries will discuss some of their experiences in international relief responses, development activities, and policy developments from the Indonesian tsunami response, to the opening of Burma/Myanmar, to the Liberian Ebola outbreak containment.

PHILLIP HUMPHREYS

'91, Social Work

'99, M.A. Social Science

Dean of Student Services at the
El Camino College Compton Center

Finish Strong

Friday, April 22, 2 pm
Gist Hall, Room 218

Phillip Humphreys, the current Dean of Students at El Camino College Compton Center, draws on a career in higher education to address what it takes to be successful in school, career, and in life.

For more information visit:

forever.humboldt.edu

The Distinguished Alumni Speaker
Series is FREE and open to the public.

HSU is an AA/EQ institution. Disability accommodation may be available. Contact event sponsor at 826-3132.

HUMBOLDT STATE UNIVERSITY